

Bob & Carol Marsh: Update and Prayer Request

Thank you for your prayers for Bob as he traveled to Brussels for the first in-person meeting of Converge’s newly-formed International Ministries Leadership Team (IMLT). We met for three days from roughly 8:30 a.m. until 5:00p.m., taking a short break for lunch at an airport food court. Evening meals were in the city center at a restaurant, with discussions that proved fruitful and focused primarily on topics for the team.

The team has always been committed to comprehensive focus. No issue is barred from discussion. Everyone in the room has permission to “speak freely” on every topic. Opinions, push-back, options, and debate are not just tolerated, they are encouraged. The goal is to gain clarity on our current condition, our mission objectives, obstacles to our progress, and the formulation of the best pathway to fulfill that mission.

Bob & Carol Marsh

In my 40 years of working on teams in the corporate world, state and local government, and ministry leadership on a local and global level, I cannot think of a more productive and encouraging team experience. While we made real progress, the work is far from over. As Winston Churchill said, “This is not the end, it is not the beginning of the end. It may be, perhaps, be the end of the beginning.” The IMLT is at the starting line of the task before us – to have Converge International Ministries in a posture of mission-driven performance with leadership that is empowering, responsive, and supportive of the Global Workers on the field.

Prayer for Our Upcoming Ministry Trip

On Sunday, April 26, we will leave for a two week ministry journey to southeastern Europe. We will spend the majority of the time in Giurgiu, Romania. Bob was there last year and we are returning to continue to support and learn from a wonderful movement of God in that area along the Danube. We will be visiting church plants, teaching at a Bible College for local church planters and leaders, preaching at churches, and helping with outreach events.

From there we will spend a few days in Vienna, Austria, with church leaders and staff, then on to Budapest, Hungary to connect with Ukrainian Cru-Military workers who are based there. We return on Saturday, May 9.

Thank you for your partnership! Your prayers and financial support allow us to serve our King and His kingdom!
